We, the student body of Gardner-Webb College, do proudly dedicate this 1978 edition of the Web to the faculty of our college. Although you are as diversified as all the aspects of life, the unison which you display is a credit to Gardner-Webb College. Your leadership in scholastic and extracurricular events proves your enthusiasm towards the spiritual goodwill of our college family. Thank you, for being the Gardner-Webb faculty of 1978-79.

The Sound of Silence

Hello darkness my old friend,
I've come to talk with you again,
Because a vision softly creeping,
Left its seeds while I was sleeping
And the vision that was planted in my brain
Still remains within the sound of silence.

In restless dreams I walked alone,
Narrow streets of cobble stone
'Neath the halo of a street lamp,
I turned my collar to the cold and damp
When my eyes were stabbed by the flash of a neon light
That split the night, and touched the sound of silence.

And in the naked light I saw
Ten thousand people maybe more.
People talking without speaking,
People hearing without listening,
People writing songs that voices never share
And no one dares disturb the sound of silence.

"Fools!" said I, "You do not know
Silence like a cancer grows.
Hear my words that I might teach you
Take my arms that I might reach you."
But my words like silent raindrops fell
And echoed, in the wells of silence.

And the people bowed and prayed
To the neon God they made,
And the sign flashed out its warning
In the words that it was forming.
And the sign said:
"The words of the prophets are written on the subway walls and tenement halls"
And whispered in the sounds of silence.

Instead of using the editor's page to say things about the annual, the school, and this year that all of the students already know, I thought it would be more appropriate to use this page exculsively to say thank you to a lot of fantastic people whose help I could not have done without.

First, a special thank you to Rita Ingram, Key's Printing Representative, who always had the time to see us and who offered us guidance and good advice throughout the year.

I'd also like to thank Gilbert File, the yearbook advisor, and his secretary Maryann Moffitt for all the help they gave us. Also a special thanks to Lem Lynch and Tom Watson for their photography.

And finally to the year book staff:

Charles Benjamin
Bronlynn Bodey
Donna Campbell
Barbara Gerding
Sandy Gouge
Mike Gurley
Sherry Ingram
Billy Jack Martin
Owen McWhirter
Bob Moncrief
Glenn Phillips
Gary Reams
Nedra Shelly
Susan Shields
Dawn Sisson
Robin Wilson

Assistant editor, Suzzie Wooten

Your help was greatly appreciated. Thanks for being the best yearbook staff anyone could ask for.
